THE CONTRACT SIGNED. Col. Andrews in Norfolk Yesterday on Business.

Col. Andrews, vice president of the Southern Railway Company, was in Norfolk yesterday and for some time was in conference with officials of the city. He yielded the points raised by the presidents of the councils, and "cash value" will be inserted in the lease instead of "taxable value," and the papers were signed. There is nothing now left to do but to go to work.

Matrimonial. On Wednesday, August 14th, Mr. W. T. Williams and Miss Lettie Green were married at the Episcopal Church in Rock Hill, S. C., the home of the bride and formerly of the bridegroom.

Mr. Williams is connected with the wholesale grocery house of the Health Smith Company, and since his residence in Norfolk has been a high place in the esteem of those with whom he has met, socially and in business. The bride is a bright and attractive lady who will soon win in Norfolk many friends. The bridal party returned from an extended Northern tour this morning and will reside at 107 York street.

One of the Most Difficult Problems that confronts the busy doctor in these hot days is the proper stimulation of the sick. Proper in the sense that the liquor administered is assimilated, digested, and obtains the direct effect quickly, without any wear and tear upon the digestive organs or producing any excitement of the brain.

The Old and Genuine LONDON DOCK BRAXY, sold by JOHN W. BURROW, the druggist, Main street, has wonderfully sustaining powers to the grievously sick and weak, tiding over patients' strength along, until the disease has spent itself. This Braxy is specially imported for its medicinal qualities. It is reliable, always digested, and that easily, and is adapted to the baby, the adult, the invalid and the aged. In bottles all sizes (1 pint, 25c.; 1/2 pint, 50c.; 1/4 pint, $1; gallon, $8).

The steamer "Northampton," of the Old Dominion Line, leaves the Bay Line dock, Norfolk, every morning at 7:00 a. m., for Mathews and Gloucester counties, arriving here on her return trip about 6:00 p. m. This makes a delightful trip during the hot weather. Fare $1.00 for the round trip.

The Old Dominion Office. The Old Dominion Steamship Company's offices have recently been moved into their new building at the southeast corner of Church and Water streets.

The building has been remodeled throughout and has a new brick front. The offices are fitted out handsomely. Mr. M. B. Crowell, the agent, has his office on the second floor.

BRAMBLETON. Mrs. D. W. Barton, who was spending some time at her parental home in Petersburg, Va., returned to the ward yesterday.

Now for war against weeds on all lots in the ward, which the police officers must be out down.

Capt. J. M. and Mrs. Annie M. Lockhead, of 222 Windsor avenue, had the misfortune to lose by death yesterday, 1:05 a. m., their infant son, Frank Belham, aged 1 year and 5 days. The remains will be taken to Edenton, N. C., this morning on the 9:45 train, Norfolk and Southern railroad, on arrival of which the funeral and interment will take place at that destination.

Mr. C. W. Carhart has removed his family from W. Brambleton avenue to 105 Cooke avenue.

Mrs. M. L. Samwalk, of Newport News, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Tustall avenue.

Capt. J. H. Marshall, the well known pilot, has returned from down South, whither he went with the yacht Petrel, and is at his home on Malby avenue, somewhat indisposed.

HUNTERSVILLE. Mrs. W. R. Armstrong and children, of Outten street, have just returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Princess Anne county, Va.

Mr. L. J. Gallup, of Central avenue, is spending some time at Mountain Lake, Giles county, Va.

Master Frank L. Cutchins has sufficiently recovered from his recent serious illness to be up a little.

Mrs. C. L. Guyton and children, of Central avenue, who went on a trip to Great Bridge two weeks ago, are at home again.

Outten street was in mud holes yesterday. How will it be later on in the wet season, unless shells be put on at once?

Railroad Earnings. The estimated gross earnings of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company for the second week of August were $187,353, a decrease of $25,385, compared with the corresponding week of last year. The total gross earnings from January 1 were $5,517,033, compared with $6,077,994 for the corresponding period of last year—a decrease of $560,961.

The Southern Railway Company reports gross earnings for the second week of August $332,081, as compared with $332,948 for the corresponding week of last year, and from July 1 to August 14, $2,139,824, as compared with $1,371,970 for the same period of last year—an increase of $167,854.

THE PIG SKIN KICKERS. The University of Virginia to Have a Strong Team Next Season.

Mr. W. W. Old, of this city, the manager of the University football team, has just returned from the Sweet Chalybeate Springs, where he made arrangements for the training of the team, which will begin "shortly."

The eleven young men who will battle for the Varsity next season have not yet been selected, but it is said there is an abundance of good material.

Embracing the Opportunity. By the recent advance in sterling Messrs. Greenwood & Bro. had in and placed orders for a large stock of silverware, which will be sold at the old, low-down prices. Everything needed in sterling silver is to be found at the Casket at the lowest prices in the city.

A large accession of finger rings has also been made. They are now specially pretty and specially cheap.

Look out for the Ocean View street parade this morning of Oscar Gregory and his trained horses. He will drive tandem riding on a bicycle.

Dr. N. Jackson, Homeopathic, Office, Moritz building; Residence, Hotel Norfolk; phone, 286. Jy7 edit

Evening Excursion to Old Point. The steamer Northampton, of Old Dominion Line, will leave Bay Line wharf, Norfolk, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at 7 p. m. for Old Point; returning, leave Old Point at 10 p. m. Round trip fare for this delightful excursion, 50 cents.

NEWPORT NEWS.

Newport News, August 22.—The young men of Newport News gave a very enjoyable dance at the "Gloucester" Wednesday night, which was largely attended. Among those present were Misses Marion and Ruth Robins, of Richmond; Misses Poll and Mary Chimes, of Hampton; Miss Turner, of Launce; Misses Mattie Turner, Emma Bruce, Berta Chandler, Sophie Stuart, of Washington; Messrs Scott and Miller, of Kentucky; Messrs Talley, Robinson, Pierce, Milford, Edmunds, Strongfield, Harrison, Keys, Bittely, Brooke, Byrd and others.

Miss Javis B. Howard, of Richmond, will be the guest of her cousin, Miss Emma Bruce, this week.

Lieut. Chas. Parker, of Fortress Monroe, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Lingen land daughter have returned home after a stay at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. M. W. Harwood, principal of the Newport News Seminary, has returned from Northampton county. Her school will open on the 16th of September, and she will have quite a large number of pupils in the boarding school, as well as an increase in the day department. Quite an addition has been made to the school building by new rooms being added and many modern improvements being put in.

In the game of baseball between Newport News and Hampton Wednesday afternoon Newport News came out 14 and Hampton 2.

Mr. W. A. Shannon and daughter, Miss Lela Shannon, of North Carolina, left Wednesday for Baltimore, after a short stay here.

Mr. J. K. Kane and Mrs. Kane left Wednesday for Suwanee, Tenn., accompanied by Mr. Horace Kane and Miss Mary Kane. They will leave later to make Atlanta their home, much to the regret of their many friends here.

VIRGINIA BEACH. A Delightful Event. An Elegant Dinner Party.

VIRGINIA BEACH, August 22.—One of the most delightful events of the season here was an elegant dinner given Tuesday evening by Messrs. Hugh H. Gordon, of Atlanta, Ga.; Sydney J. Hayden, of Indiana, and C. A. Meyers, of Cincinnati. The table was set with covers for ten in the private dining room of the Princess Anne Hotel, where course after course was served, comprising every delicacy of the season. It was a recherche affair and replete throughout with elegance and good taste. Several toasts were drunk and responded to by those present, the one by Mr. Gordon deserving special mention.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of these gentlemen were Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Cincinnati; Mr. Whitlaw, Mr. Harold Whitlaw and Miss Bessie Whitlaw, of St. Louis, and the Misses Clarke, of Newport News.

Mr. Sydney J. Hayden, of Indiana, auditor of the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis railroad, has left, being home by telegram to a meeting of the directors of the road, which met at Evansville yesterday.

The Princess Anne, under its present management, is well kept. Everything works systematically, the fare is excellent and in the entire South it would be exceedingly hard to find a place so attractive as this beautiful resort.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C. A special call meeting of the Naval Reserve will be held at the armory on Friday night. As there is some important business to be transacted a full attendance is requested.

Miss Mamie Sprill, of Edenton, is visiting friends in the city.
